BULLETIN No. 2

Free practice 1 – track limits/penalty markers

During this session was reported the multiple infringement of the track limits/penalty markers of almost all trucks participated in the session. During the briefing and by Bulletin No. 1 all the competitors were reminded about the regulations related to this topic and the drivers are still breaching this regulations.

In case the situation with the breaching of the track limit will continue during the next sessions, the race direction will ask to Stewards to impose stronger penalties according to the scale given by FIA International Sporting Code.
